Spring Time Is Racket Time

The Governor's vaunted Consumers Council has, after these several years of gestation, produced a study on the gentle art of larcency as practiced by "siding" salesmen.

These salesmen want to apply new siding, or other substance, to homes at a tremendous "discount." The "discount" would be earned through a "referral" racket.

There has not been a year that this column has not issued a spring warning on the subject. And we didn't have to spend a half million dollars to study the problem and to suggest a solution.

All that is needed is a little knowledge, so we'll pass on to you the Consumers Council's point of view.

A salesmen offers money for the names of prospects or for letting the home to be used as a "model." Often the material is aluminum siding or other outside coatings, fire alarm systems, water softeners, and the like. Frequently, after a sizeable contract is signed, a couple of commissions are paid for the use of the home as "model". But the home owner often ends up by paying off a long-term contract at a high rate of interest.

Helen Nelson, Consumer Counsel, offers some of these check-points.

1. Become wary when a sales pitch indicates commission for names of prospects or for using the home for a "model."

2. Be wary of the smooth talker who comes to your home unannounced. Be especially wary if he calls in advance and says he has something to give, or that he isn't "selling" anything.

3.Don't be rushed into signing a contract, agreement or esti-

'Can't Buy Off Teens,' Pastor Tells GOP Group

Pastor James Johnson, associate minister of the Skyline Wesleyan Methodist Church of Lemon Grove, was the guest speaker of the Lemon Grove Young Republicans at their regular monthly meeting Monday evening.

Pastor Johnson spoke on "Youth and the Church." He is presently devoting most of his time to youth work in the congregation and is president of the Wesleyan Methodist Youth of California, a statewide organization.

Reverend Johnson emphasized that "You can't buy off a teenager. The church must offer them something which they can get nowhere else."

Dr. Ed Grubbs, club president, pointed to the need of "faith and a sense of responsibility" among young people. He said:

"From the fact that the Wesleyan Methodist Church now runs an average Sunday school attendance of over a thousand, I'd say the youth program is certainly a dynamic one."

Commend Viet Nam Stand

The Club passed a resolution commending President Johnson's strong stand against the communists in Viet Nam. Pat Steiger, resolutions chairman said:

"We feel that expressing our backing for the president, especially when various left wing groups and many factions in his own party are putting pressure upon him to yield to communist force, is very important at this time."

The club meets every third Monday of the month at the Lemon Grove Medical Board Room, 3240 Main St. It is open to all interested Republicans between the ages 18 and 40.

WHAT'S IN A NAME, OSCAR?

Where do you look for a runaway 14-inch tortoise with a bright yellow shell? In a lumber pile, of course.

Just ask the Herbert Haags, 3870 Spring Dr., Spring Valley. That's where they found "Oscar" three weeks after he wandered away.

What Oscar didn't know when he lit out was that the Haags had just found a girl friend for him and had settled her in his new play yard, just waiting for him.

Now that he's home again his hosts believe he's getting over his wunderlust. He seems to like his new mate, they said, but he still can't pronounce her name.

It's "Supercalifragilisticexpialigocious"!

Snake-Bite Victim Loses Right Hand

John Colombo, Lyons Valley Road, near Jamul, is home from El Cajon Valley Hospital, where his right hand was amputated as the result of a rattlesnake bite.

His wife, Madeline, said he was working in his garden on May 1. There were no weeds in the garden and Colombo was down on his hands and knees working around the beet patch.

A rattler, about 18 inches long, bit Colombo on the right hand. The snake then coiled as if to strike a second time, but Colombo got out of its way.

He was immediately taken to the hospital for treatment. The hand became worse and on May 20 had to be amputated.

Colombo is a cabinetmaker for Walker-Scott Companv and formerly lived on Conrad Drive in Spring Valley.

Area Service Clubs to Buy 'Friendly Enemy' Booklets

Costs of printing 10,000 more copies of the booklet, "Friendly Enemies," for distribution in LMSV schools have been underwritten by area service clubs. The booklet is designed to caution children not to become involved with strangers.

William Schell, director of instructional materials for the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District, said that 5,000 copies have been placed in each of the seven Spring Valley area for distribution to students in grades 1-3.

Police Participating

The remaining 6500 copies will be stored by the La Mesa Police Department for future use. The booklet was distributed last spring to primary grade youngsters in other district schools as well as to this year's kindergarteners.

Chief of Police Glenn B. Adams issued the following statement:

"It is with a sense of sincere gratitude that we acknowledge the generous and impressive contributions of the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District staff and the service clubs in La Mesa, Spring Valley and El Cajon, for making possible the printing of 10,000 copies of the booklet, "Friendly Enemies." La Mesa Police Department feels very strongly the placing of this booklet in the hands of each La Mesa-Spring Valley District student will be of immeasurable value."

It is easy to thank someone —husband, wife, mother, father —for something they have done for us. It is harder to thank them for being themselves. With God, too, it is easier to thank Him for blessings and answered prayer, harder to thank Him for being God and being present. Thanking God for being God is worship. The best place to do it is in your Church, this Sunday.

Anglers' Angles

A FISHY COLUMN

By JIM HURLEY

I didn't go fishing this week. My friend backed out of our planned Salton Sea fishing trip last Friday. So I took my boat up to have the motor tuned up and a bait tank installed.

In case you haven't fished in the bay with these live anchovies, you not know that you have to keep the water and air moving in order to keep them alive any length of time.

We are going to the Sea this week if the weather clears up and the winds die. I am also looking forward to our trip to the Sierras in a couple of weeks. We will be fishing at Convict Lake, Lake Crowley, and the June Lake loop. This will be strictly trout fishing, and this is what I cut my teeth on.

This ocean fishing and these small lakes were all new to me, but I have become accustomed to them and there is a lot of pleasure to be derived from them. Most of this fishing is within 20 minutes of home.

Tips on Pier Fishing

Imperial Beach has a wonderful pier all for free to be fished any time you so desire; but take some change with you for the parking meters on the parking lot adjoining the pier. You can also take half-day excursions from here.

Remember, in fishing from these public piers you cannot cast overhand, so take a fairly heavy pole with a bait-casting reel for best results. The fishing has been fair lately from Imperial Beach pier.

FISHIN' RESULTS

Jennings—Not many fishermen, but good average for those who did brave the cold. Saturday: 274 fishermen; 676 trout totaling 394 lbs.; 88 limits. Sunday: 242 fishermen; 408 trout weighing 269 lbs.; 57 limits. Bluegill and catfish fair.

Murray—As usual, trout fishing was good from boats in 25 feet of water. For boat reservations call 466-0332. This lake will be planted with 2,000 pounds of trout May 28.

Sutherland—No bluegill. Bass good . . . a couple of big ones were taken on surface plugs and lots on eel, fishing on the bottom.

El Capitan—Bass poor. Bullhead cat poor. Bluegill good from the shore. Medium to small channel cat were caught on cut mackrel at the north end, averaging 1 to 1¼ lbs.

Lower Otay—Fair bass fishing. Many catfish taken on red worms fished on the bottom across from the boat landing.

NOTE: All lakes will be open Monday, May 31, following Memorial Day.

Weekend Aquafair To Feature 600 Surfing Artists

Some 600 surfers will be competing in the 10th Annual Pacific Beach Aquafair Western Regional Surfing Championships Saturday and Sunday.

One group will be the internationally famous Windansea Surf Club, whose champions hold many surfing titles.

Windansea, whose membership rosters reads like a who's who of surfing, will be out in full force to compete in the two-day event which includes individual surfing, tandem, club events, and paddling contests.

Many Famous Names

The public will have the opportunity to see the surfing artistry of Joey Cabell, former Makaha champion; Phil Edwards, considered by many to be the number-one surfer in the world; Mike Hynson, star of the movie "The Endless Summer"; Mickey Munoz, multi-title holder and considered one of the top all around water men of California; Corky Carroll, outstanding junior division champion; Donald Takayama, former Hawaiin division champion, and Skip Frye, winner in 1963 and 1964 of the Pacific Beach Aquafair championship.

Assisting as advisers for the contest are Thor Svenson, executive director of Windansea, and Chuck Hasley, president of the club's seniors.

400 'Breakfasters' Attend Kiwanis Event

The Spring Valley Kiwanis Club "pancake festival" held last Saturday, May 22, attracted about 400 diners, according to the club president, Frank Berger. Proceeds from the event will be used for boys and girls work in the Spring Valley area.

Holiday drinking and driving DON'T mix. Last year during the Memorial Day holiday, drinking was a factor in two out of five accidents.

Bad Check Charge Nets 1-14 Years

SAN DIEGO (CNA)—John W. McAnear, 44, 2505 Bancroft dr., Spring Valley, has been ordered to state prison for from one to 14 years for writing bad checks.

Sentence was imposed Friday by Superior Court Judge Gerald C. Thomas. McAnear was found guilty of the check charge and a grand theft charge in a jury trail. The sentences were set to run concurrently.

The crime was committed when McAnear wrote a bad check for $2896 for the purchase of an automobile from an Encinitas firm.

McAnear told the probation department that he had intended to cover the check with a loan on his property in Vista, but that the loan did not materialize.

Suicide Blamed On Marital Problems

Despondency of David McConkey over his marriage was cited by Sheriff's officers as a possible cause for his suicide in Lemon Grove the evening of May 20.

The 20-year-old airman shot himself in the head with a .22 automatic during a visit here with his sister, Irene Smith, 1827 Dartmoore. He had been stationed at Oxnard Air Force Base.

ROCK THROWN ON FREEWAY

George M. Mathy of El Cajon reported to the sheriff's department that someone threw a rock and broke his windshield as he was driving east on the 94 freeway last Thursday evening about 7:30. He said the rock was thrown from Bowling Green Drive.

He immediately turned around, he said and came back to the area and his children saw a boy aged between 14 and 16 years run from the scene. He had brown hair and was wearing a red and white checked shirt and green trousers, they said.

Ivan L. McDuffee, 3669 Harris, Lemon Grove, reported to officers that the battery cables were cut and a six-volt battery stolen from his car sometime between 8:30 p.m. and 4:30 a.m. while his car was parked in front of 8729 Jamacha Rd., Spring Valley. He said two holes were punched in his radiator and three boxes of asphalt tile were taken.

Men's Club Program Is 'Rose Parade'

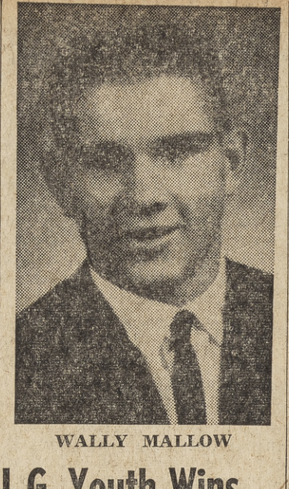
The showing of the movies of the 1965 Rose Parade, by one of the participants, Bob Howell, provided the program Friday for the Lemon Grove Men's Club.

Howell, equestrian, who has ridden in the parade for the past several years, added interesting personal observations to the color film.

The program this week will be on narcotics, with Sgt. Jack Gardner of the sheriff's narcotics squad as speaker.

The club meets every Friday at Michael's for a noon luncheon. All males are invited.

Slow down between sunset and sunrise this Memorial Day. Last year many of the accidents happened after dark. Midnight to 4 a.m. is an especially bad period.



WALLY MALLOW

L.G. Youth Wins Baseball Award

SANTA BARBARA — Wally Mallow, catcher playing for the UCSB Gauchos, was honored last week as a co-recipient of the most inspirational player trophy presented at the annual Kappa Sigma baseball awards banquet held here.

Sharing the honor with Mallow was shortstop Neil Minami from Gardena. "Balloting was so close," head coach Dave Gorrie said, "that we shared this fine honor. It couldn't have gone to two more well deserving young men."

Mallow, who attended Helix High School prior to enrolling at UCSB, was credited by Gorrie for his "outstanding contributions and efforts on the diamond. He always gave his all," Gorrie said, "and he never gave up, even when the going got rough.

"Tremendous Asset"

"Wally gave of himself in every department—and did his utmost to aid our cause. He was a tremedous asset to our team and indeed an inspiration."

Mallow's clutch hits against Stanford and Southern California broke up both ball games and enabled the Gauchos to win each. His performance at bat in each case were cited by Gorrie as true highlights of the entire year.

The 5-9, 185 pounder from Lemon Grove is a junior and will return to play for UCSB next season. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mallow, of 3773 King st.

Probation for Saw Stealer

SAN DIEGO (CNA)—A tree trimmer who stole three power saws from his Spring Valley employer was placed on three years' probation Monday by Superior Court Judge Robert W. Conyers and ordered to pay $60 in restitution.

He is Arthur Jay Mack, 37, 3570 44th St., San Diego. He entered the shop of G. H. Nielsen, 9755 Campo Rd., Feb. 23, in the company of two juveniles, and took the saws. Later he returned and broke a window to make it appear that a person not working for the firm had committed the burglary.

The saws were sold to a pawn shop in Los Angeles for $20 apiece.

Nielsen said that he was able to recover the saws for the price paid but that he had already had to buy three new saws for $770.

The only prior arrest shown in the probation report for Mack was on a drunk charge in 1958.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Recently a neighbor was involved in an accident at the corner of Central and Buena Vista. This intersection is one of the most dangerous corners in Lemon Grove, there have been numerous accidents at this site.

After making a legal stop at this intersection a driver must inch his way out into the intersection to get an unobstructed view of approaching traffic. If luck is with you no one is coming otherwise the approaching driver must slow and swerve to avoid a collision. A similar condition existed at the intersection when traveling in a southerly direction a few years ago. This was alleviated to some extent by trimming the offending hedge.

The current menace is hedge and trees, mostly trees. With the few trees we are fortunate to have in Lemon Grove I certainly don't advocate cutting these trees down. I believe the best solution would be a four way stop at this corner. This would give twofold advantage. 1. It would certainly relieve a dangerous situation in relation to motorists. 2. It would better regulate speed on Central for the safety of the school children who must use Central on the way to school.

I hope that some solution can be reached on this dangerous situation before a life is lost.

Yours truly,
—J. R. Ott

mate. Take time. Think it over. Check with the police or the district attorney's office.

4. Before signing, read the paper over completely. Sure, it takes time but a big hunk of your future income might be at stake. Some families have signed mortgages on their homes as security for aluminum siding jobs.

5. Ask questions. Be sure you know exactly what you're buying. Ask how much the cash price is even if you don't intend to pay in cash. If he tells you, you can see how much you are being socked for credit. If he won't tell you the cash price, it is for sure a gyp.

6. Don't be satisfied with learning only the monthly payments. Insist on knowing the cost of financing. Homeowner contracts are frequently sold to financing institutions whose concern is to collect the money. They assume little responsibility for the quality or functioning of the goods or services.

7. There is a law setting maximum credit rates. If you learn they are overhigh you may get sympathy through a charge in Small Claims Court, but for relief, you've got to find the seller.

Best bet—buy through a recognized agency.

Poetic Reporters Look at People

Every time a newspaper publishes a poem or two, it encourages all of those who have penned an ode in the near or distant past to search out such emanations and fire them off to the ditor of that newspaper.

The following sonnets are not presented to stir poetry writing people. They were written by reporters with a message, a commentary, so to speak, on the people with whom reporters deal.

The human race is funny --
Of that there is no doubt.
Some beg to get their names in print --
Some beg to keep 'em out.
L. A Barrett, HEADLIGHT, Pitsbuurg, Kas.

Of all of those I'd like to kill
The one I think I someday will
Is she who wants "this story in
So my club's scrapbook can win."

School Board Transfers Funds to Give Raises

The Lemon Grove school board Monday night studied the problem of meeting requests for raises without increasing the $2,045,000 budget or raising the school tax rate. By culling out $41,000 in capital outlay and dropping off one teaching job, they came within shooting distance of their goal. The goal is a $50,000 adjustment.

Requested were $12,500 in classified personnel raises, and $37,500 in teachers' pay raises. The budget will not be reduced, Byron Netzley, district superintendent said. It will remain at the anticipated level.

At the June 14 meeting, trustees will attempt to transfer another $9,000 from budgeted items to salaries. At the same meeting bids will be opened on two building projects. The projects are the multi-purpose room at Golden Ave. school, and the band and shower room at L. G. junior high.

27 Crimes Laid To Area Youths

SAN DIEGO (CNA)—A Lemon Grove youth has been sent to the California Youth Authority for burglary of a Le Mesa home and the Jamul General Store.

James Edward Cross, 18, 7828 Longsdale Dr., pleaded guilty to second-degree burglary. The arrest of Cross and Tommy Albertson, 18, of El Cajon, solved more than 20 local burglaries, seven auto thefts and an attempted armed robbery, El Cajon police said following the arrest of the two April 6.

Found in Cross's home, police said, were a 30.06 rifle, ammunition, radios, garden hose, watches, a tape recorder and clothes reported stolen from the Jamul store and the home of Harold E. McNeil, La Mesa.

'Cold War' Veterans May Apply for Loans

Veterans of at least eight 'cold war' military expeditions, including Vietnam, may immediately begin applying for Cal-Vet farm or home loans, according to State Director of Veterans Affairs Joseph M. Farber.

"Although the McAteer bill, just signed by Governor Brown, doesn't become effective until Sept. 17, we can begin accepting preliminary applications right away. We will hold them until that date, then mail the eligibility certificates to those who are found eligible under the law," Farber said.

Ferber also said applicants must supply a photo copy or original copy of their discharge or a certificate of service showing date and place of enlistment with their applications. Applicants must also show they have received an Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal given for one of the eight campaigns.

Application blanks may be obtained at County Service Offices or district offices of the Cal-Vet Farm and Home Purchases Program.

HAPPY HELP — Give the children something to do while picnicking or camping and they'll have more fun, says Miss Carol Lane, Women's Travel Director for Shell Oil Company, who gets an enthusiastic assist with foil wrapping in the above photo. For a free copy of "Let's Go Camping," write Miss Lane, Shell Oil Company, 1008 West Sixth St., Los Angeles, Calif., 90054.

Take to the Woods, Gals; Why Take a Man Along?

It's okay, girls, to take to the woods, and you don't need a male escort to enjoy it.

At least that's the opinion of Miss Carol Lane, Women's Travel Director for Shell Oil Company, who receives a number of inquiries each year about the advisability of women going on camping trips without a man along.

A camping trip can be a wonderful change of pace for working women and college girls, and it is perfectly safe as long as a few simple rules are followed, Miss Lane says.

Rule number 1, she advises, is to stay at supervised camping areas and always check in with the forest ranger in charge.

"If you tell him you are unescorted and novices at camping, he'll be more than willing to help."

Rule number two, as the Boy Scouts say, is to be prepared.

"Take along all the equipment you need to be comfortable and to handle emergencies; leave everything that you don't need at home.

"But most important of all be prepared mentally to enjoy yourself.

Don't Be 'Bugged'

"Don't let small things like bugs, sand in your shoes or smoke in your eyes dampen your spirits. Relax, enjoy the sunshine and fresh air. Go hiking, horseback riding, rock hunting or swimming."

Miss Lane is a roving researcher, testing ideas, gadgets and places to increase the camping pleasure of millions of American families who take to the outdoors each year. She is author of a booklet entitled "Let's Go Camping", which is a wealth of information for novice campers. It is available free to anyone writing Miss Lane, Shell Oil Company, 1008 West Sixth St., Los Angeles, Calif., 90054.

SDGE Asks Hearing On Rate Reductions

SAN DIEGO—Permission to participate in a forthcoming Federal Power Commission gas rate hearing was sought by San Diego Gas & Electric Company in a support of certain gas refunds and rate reductions affecting prices to San Diego customers.

"These proceedings are directly related to the price of natural gas to the San Diego area, and this is of great concern to our gas and electric customers," said J. F. Sinnot, SDG&E president.

The case involves five producers and El Paso Natural Gas Company, which is a major supplier of gas for Southern California. The FPC recently disallowed a rate increase by the producers to El Paso Natural Gas Company and ordered them to make appropriate refunds.

Producers contested the order by requesting the rehearing.
